

Psalm 145:10-18 (The Message)

¹⁰⁻¹¹ Creation and creatures applaud you, God;
your holy people bless you.

They talk about the glories of your rule,
they exclaim over your splendor,

¹² Letting the world know of your power for good,
the lavish splendor of your kingdom.

¹³ Your kingdom is a kingdom eternal;
you never get voted out of office.

God always does what he says,
and is gracious in everything he does.

¹⁴ God gives a hand to those down on their luck,
gives a fresh start to those ready to quit.

¹⁵ All eyes are on you, expectant;
you give them their meals on time.

¹⁶ Generous to a fault,
you lavish your favor on all creatures.

¹⁷ Everything God does is right—
the trademark on all his works is love.

¹⁸ God's there, listening for all who pray,
for all who pray and mean it.

Miracles – who needs them!

What have you seen, done, heard about, or lived through in your life that you would consider a miracle?

How does your experience of “miracles” in the world fit in with these descriptions of “miracles” in John 6 (feeding the crowd and walking on water)? What’s the difference? Is it possible to compare “everyday” miracles with Biblical miracle stories?

Have you ever considered that maybe God has called and empowered YOU, US, to make “miracles” happen in the world? What might we be able to accomplish as “miracle workers”?
