

Psalm 91

A song to be sung on the Sabbath Day.

¹ It is good to give thanks to the LORD,
to sing praises to the Most High.
² It is good to proclaim your unfailing love
in the morning,
your faithfulness in the evening,
³ accompanied by the ten-stringed harp
and the melody of the lyre.

⁴ You thrill me, LORD, with all you have done
for me!
I sing for joy because of what you have done.
⁵ O LORD, what great works you do!
And how deep are your thoughts.
⁶ Only a simpleton would not know,
and only a fool would not understand
this:
⁷ Though the wicked sprout like weeds
and evildoers flourish,
they will be destroyed forever.

⁸ But you, O LORD, will be exalted forever.
⁹ Your enemies, LORD, will surely perish;

all evildoers will be scattered.
¹⁰ But you have made me as strong as a wild ox.
You have anointed me with the finest
oil.
¹¹ My eyes have seen the downfall of my enemies;
my ears have heard the defeat of my
wicked opponents.
¹² But the godly will flourish like palm trees
and grow strong like the cedars of Lebanon.
¹³ For they are transplanted to the LORD's
own house.
They flourish in the courts of our God.
¹⁴ Even in old age they will still produce
fruit;
they will remain vital and green.
¹⁵ They will declare, "The LORD is just!
He is my rock!
There is no evil in him!"

Luke 6:43-45

‘No good tree bears bad fruit, nor again does a bad tree bear good fruit; for each tree is known by its own fruit. Figs are not gathered from thorns, nor are grapes picked from a bramble bush. The good person out of the good treasure of the heart produces good, and the evil person out of evil treasure produces evil; for it is out of the abundance of the heart that the mouth speaks.’
